STRANGE MIXUP IN COLLISION AFFAIR

Horses Change Places And Astonish Owners

Sunday night at about eight o'clock there was a mix up on the corner of Keeaukoku and King streets, that led to a saddle horse jumping in between the shafts of a hack from which the proper horse had escaped. The Clid-nese hack driver was the most puzzled man in Honolulu when he found a strange animal standing quietly where his own nags should be.

It all happened this way: A boy named John Ferage was riding toward town along King street, when his mount shied at something and threw him to the ground. The lad was stunned for a few minutes, and the horse dashed across the street and collided with a hack that was going Waikiki.
The animal fell over the shafts and in some way broke the single tree and released the other horse, which at once ran away up Keeaukoku street.
The hack driver was struck by something and rendered unconscious, and when he awoke from slumber and he thinking the horse between the shafts was his, attempted to drive off. Much to the Celestial's surprise he found that the animal had a saddle on its back. This was too much for the hack driver and he yelled out for help.

The boy in the meantime recovered his senses and seeing a horse running up Keeaukoku street, he set out after it at his best pace. After a long chase he captured the animal but nearly fell dead with astonishment when he found a full set of harness on the horse.

The matter was cleared up by some wise witnesses coming forward and explaining how the horses had changed places. The matter does not rest there, however, as both parties are thinking of taking out warrants for the arrest of the other on a charge of horse stealing.

YACHT NIGHT RACE AT EMPIRE THEATER

Big Amateur Show Will Be Pulled Off This Evening—Fine Amateur Talent.

This evening at the Empire Theater the much-talked-of yacht night will be pulled off, and as fine a program as has ever been staged in Honolulu will be on tap. The tickets have been selling at a fast rate, and there are not many seats left at the present moment.

The program is a beauty, and some of the best amateurs of the Territory are down for turns that will please the audience as much as any professional stunts that have ever been brought off in these islands.

The Empire Theater has been handed over to the yacht committee by Manager Overend, and all the receipts above actual expenses will be devoted to the Hawaii race fund.

It is up to the people of Honolulu to get in and give a helping hand to the trans-Pacific race fund, and the best way to do so is to buy a ticket for tonight's show, and in that way add to the amount of cash that is necessary for making the race a success.

BERETANIA TENNIS MEN ELECT OFFICERS

Wall Cup Play to Start Soon—New Court Will Be Built.

At the meeting of the Beretania Tennis Club which was held last night, the following officers were re-elected for the coming year: A. C.
Wall, president; E. H. Wodehouse, vice-president; R. B. Booth, treasurer; John Macaulay, secretary; C.
G. Hockus, captain.

Another court will be built in the near future, and Messrs. Hockus, Wall and Booth were appointed as a committee to attend to the matter. The two present courts are not sufficient for the large number of members, and the addition of a new court will be a great feature.

Play for the Wall Cup will begin soon, and some interesting games will be sure to see. A new name will have to appear on the trophy this year, as Gee and Warren, who both have two "legs in" for the cup, are away on the mainland and will not play in Honolulu this season.

KELIHOI FOR THE HOUSE

Sam Kelihoi of Waikuku, Maui, who is visiting in Honolulu, is an aspirant for Legislative honors. He stated yesterday morning that he would run again as a member of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Kelihoi is a Republican and believes he can get the nomination at the next convention.

While he would not make any statement regarding the prohibition problem, it is rumored that he would fight the liquor interests, when the proper times comes.

RECREATIONS

NEW TEAM AT NOVELTY.

The opening of the comedy sketch artists, Mayo and Rowe at the Novelty Theater attracted many theater goers from other amusement places last night. The sketch for the opening night was of the "funky matrimonial jar kind," but there was plenty of chance in it for clever acting and Miss Mayo made the most of it by succeeding in starting the laughter of even that portion of the audience that did not understand the English dialogue.

The complete subjection of the transformed husband was greeted with an applause that might meet a heroine in a more tragic exhibition, at a more pretensious show house.

There was no question that the verdict of the audience was that they had been highly amused by these two actors. The Earle Sisters had a new sketch song that could be well dubbed the "Jumper Act," that brought them a recall. This is an act in which they appear dressed as a fireman and engineer and sing a song about engines and babies and other noisy things.

DANCER AGAIN AT EMPIRE.

Miss Aspinwall, the talented dancer, appeared last night at the Empire for the first time since her recovery from a painful injury that kept her confined to her home for ten days. Her return to the Empire was made the occasion by a number of friends for the gift of many flowers. While she is still a bit lame, it did not seem to affect her dancing, and her exhibition last night was as successful as ever before. The music dance in which Miss Aspinwall has scored such a success in Honolulu is a representation of the native dance of the people of India.

BAND CONCERT.

The Hawaiian band will give a public concert this evening at Thomas Square at 7:30. The performance will be as follows:
Overture—Hans Sach (new) Cole
Cretan War Dance (new) Cole Tone-Poem—Breezes from the South
(new) Middleton
Lancers—The Merry-makers (new) Middleton Vocal—Hawaiian Songs—arr. by Berger Selection—Yedda (new) Metra Duet—Hear the Gentle Lark (new) Bishop A. Restless Night and the Hustler
(new) Kapo
The Star Spangled Banner.

VISIT OF GREAT PIANIST

The coming visit to Honolulu of Madame Teresa Carrero is the sole through the lucky chance of this city being a part of call to Australia that music lovers here will have the good fortune to hear the most famous woman pianist of the world. Two years ago Madame Carrero visited Australia and New Zealand, where she was comparatively unknown to fame, and aroused such admiration that she will be welcomed in the warmest manner on her return.

Her tour of the States—concluded last week—was a triumph, and in every city she has drawn crowded audiences, and been greeted as a star of the highest firmament. Her life has been one of triumphs, and she is accustomed to public adulation, but nothing has power to alter the gracefulness and serene charm of her manner.

The Marama will arrive on Friday, but as it is not possible to say when it will be early or late, the recital will take place at the Bonaire Theater either afternoon or evening, and tickets can be obtained at Bergstrom's on that understanding.

Madame Carrero will play many of her most popular numbers here; amongst them Liszt's Sixth Rhapsody, Chopin's Butterfly Study, Nocturne in B, op. 62, and Polonaise in A flat, Vo-rieti's Staccato Caprice, Schumann's Propheet Bird, and Beethoven's Sonata Appassionata.

PINK PILLS HELPED FROM THE FIRST

Parents of Girls Approaching Womanhood Should Consider the Treatment Which Restores This California Woman to Health.

When the young girl develops into womanhood there is always the danger of a general breakdown unless the blood is pure and rich. This is especially true if she overstudies or overworks.

It is a danger, however, that can be easily averted if the warning symptoms of impoverished blood are promptly heeded.
Pallor, loss of spirits, depression, lack of ambition and shortness of breath are some of these symptoms which can not be mistaken. To ensure healthful development steps must be taken at once to build up the blood, whenever these symptoms are present. The experience of hundreds of women has proved that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best medicine for this purpose. They are a certain blood builder and strengthen and give health to the entire body.

Mrs. W. M. Lynn, of No. 719 Finsse street, Chico, Cal., tells of her cure by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as she hopes that other suffering women will be led by her statement to give this remedy a trial.
"When I was in my seventeenth year," she says, "I began to suffer from weakness common to my sex. I had never been very strong and now seemed to break down completely. I had headaches every day. My back ached a great deal. I was pale and thin and didn't have ambition to do anything. I would lie around most of the time.

"My home was in Orlando and I was treated by a doctor for about two months.
He did not help me at all and I gave up his treatment to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They helped me from the first and a few boxes entirely cured me. I have been well ever since."

Parents of girls who go into decline as they reach the period of development should not neglect the first warning symptoms for the whole future health of the child depends upon the way in which she passes this critical time. Nature needs help in most cases and the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the most efficient that can be given.

If you desire full information about this treatment, write for a copy of our free booklet, "Plain Talk to Women." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

'Vogue' Wall Papers

"Vogue" papers represent a new order of things decorat-
